

Peo:
I think it was crows you were hearing.

Oscar:
Ravens.

Oscar:
The black one was a raven, but it is similar to our pied crows backhome.

Peo:
カラス (の泣き声) を聞いたときに、あーライオンみたいと言われた…

Billy:
Ah, Baboon. I said baboon.

Peo:
ひひみたい

Billy:
Let's go and see this lion and Leopard there.

Peo:
This is very interesting metaphors, right?

とてもおもしろい比較じゃないですか。だから歩きながら凄く楽しい。

Oscar:
Walking in the park with Satoko, we went to the park,
what we looked us first, I mean, in our minds, there are little stones, round pebble, small one.

That is just very similar size to Impara droppings.

So Billy had picked it up and smelled it and see that.
"OK. No, it's not impara droppings".
